Ker and Downey tour rated “top 50 tours of a lifetime”

Luxury Tour Company, Ker and Downey’s 15-day “Splendours of Cape Town Tour” has been rated as one of the National Geographic’s “Top 50 Tours of a Lifetime.”

The tour - which includes a tour of Cape Town including Table Mountain, District Six Robben Island and a walking township tour; the Garden Route; the Grootbos Private Reserve and Shamwari Game Reserve - showcases both natural and cultural splendours of the Cape.

Ker & Downey is part of Thebe Tourism Group, one of South Africa’s leading tourism players, and the tour is marketed and promoted through Ker and Downey’s Houston, Texas sales office – which also operates tours to other parts of Africa, the Middle East, New Zealand and South America.

National Geographic Traveler Magazine’s Top 50 Tours of a Lifetime is an annual nomination. Included in the nominations for the past two years are tours of the Arctic and Antarctic, Amazon Rainforest, Andes and Alaska.

“This rating by a world-renowned publication such as National Geographic Traveler Magazine is a wonderful affirmation of Ker and Downey’s commitment to providing our clients with the best in luxury – cuisine, accommodation, experiences, service and more,” said David Marek, President of the Ker & Downey office in Houston.

“We view this rating as a great achievement for Ker and Downey and we are proud to contribute to the positioning of South African tourism and the Cape as world-class luxury travel destinations.”

Thebe Tourism Group, a subsidiary of Thebe Investment Corporation, has grown to become the largest black-owned and managed tourism group in South Africa and includes in- and out-bound travel, car hire, foreign exchange, retail, conference and exhibition organizers, luxury yachts and touring vehicles. TTG also manages facilities at key tourism destinations including the Cape Point concession.

The Group has operations across Africa, North and South America, Europe and Asia.
